

Causes of Crime

has the body of an adult but the mind of a child. Some are idiots—mentally these are infants. Others are imbeciles having a mental capacity of from three to six years. The highest grade of feeble-minded are morons. These can be taught expert manual labor under proper direction if it involves no planning or reasoning.

make crimes. Their immoral tendencies make birth rate among them very high and their defect is terribly transmissible.

At least three persons in a thousand are feeble-minded. The unfitted feeble-minded do not work, and the rest of us are supporting them. The problem of the feeble-minded must be grappled with in earnest. By colonization, where they will not be able to propagate, we must stop breeding criminals.

How many feeble-minded are there now in the provinces of Canada?

How many will there be in twenty years?

British Columbia is Drawing Sportsmen From Foreign Countries

British Columbia is coming steadily more to the front as a big game country, and the gradual depletion of game animals in other sections of the continent is turning an increasing number of sportsmen here for species that are no longer to be found elsewhere.

The British Columbia game board, which administers the game resources of the province and issues licenses to all those desirous of going after big game, reports an unusually large number of applications this year, and they come from a great many places.

A few days ago a wealthy young New Zealander, who came to Canada last winter with the famous All-Black
